We hear from Nantucket that on the 27th December last, the Brethren of Union Lodge № 5 at that place met at the Lodge Room to celebrate the Feast of St. John the Evangelist, from whence they proceeded in Procession to the Rev. Mr. Shaw's Meeting House, where the Beauties of Masonry, the infinite Profit and Advantage of Brotherly Love and Unity, were learnedly, elegantly and politely displayed to a numerous and respectable Audience, by Brother Zebulon Butler, in a Sermon, the Subject whereof he made, Psalm 133 Verse 1. "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for Brethren to dwell together in Unity." They then proceeded to a convenient place, where they Dined together as Brethren; from whence they walked back to the Lodge Room in Masonic Procession; the whole was conducted with the greatest order, decency and propriety ——

Bro Thomas Fleet,

I rec'd. the above Acc't. in a letter from the Lodge Via Salem Post, with their earnest request to have the same published in the first Paper; as I could not furnish you with it sooner, hope you'll be able to get it in your Paper of tomorrow, if posible

I am Your very hum'l. Servant

Sunday Noon 29th Jany. 1775 —— Jno. Brown

To

Mr. Thomas Fleet

RW 187